

Mariachi Real de la Viña

Mariachi Real de la Viña is the beginner ensemble of The Mariachi Studio, a private music academy located in Delano, CA. It is directed by Anai Morales, with the assistance of Dayanara Bravo and Alan Cazares. These students have played their instruments for a minimum of two years and in this ensemble they explore the mariachi repertoire for the first time through a collection of age- and skill-appropriate arrangements. They perform in four recitals per year as well as in a number of family and community events. Their selections today are El Caballito (son jalisciense), Se Me Olvido Otra Vez (ranchera) and Las Barrancas (amalgueñada).
