

Mariachi de Uclatlán

Mariachi de Uclatlán is a student group comprised of UCLA students, both graduate and undergraduate. Founded in the 1960s, it is the oldest collegiate mariachi group in the United States. Over the long history of the group, they have performed all around the world, and most were recently invited to perform at Utrecht University's United Muziekfestival in the Netherlands.

Mariachi de Uclatlán features students, both graduate and undergraduate, from diverse backgrounds, majoring in everything from ethnomusicology to aerospace engineering.
