Over the last twelve months Mission San Juan Capistrano continued to provide meaningful learning opportunities, community and cultural events, one-of-a-kind experiences, and served as a historic landmark welcoming people from all over the world.

As a center for student education in social studies, over 52,000 students received a special day of hands on learning and left with a new appreciation of history. As a place of inspiration, many sought refuge in this place of peace for quiet reflection. As a place of preservation, more accomplishments in the field of preservation resulted in the extended livelihood of this incredible landmark.

We welcome all who come in peace to return time and time again to rediscover California history here, at Orange County’s birthplace and only mission. Thank you for your support during this past fiscal year.

Sincerely,
George O’Connell, President
The Mission Preservation Foundation
The Mission continued to make new history in 2009-2010 and the following are highlights of some of the many things to celebrate.

- Preservation continued to flourish with work on the West Wing completed in time to host the first ever traveling exhibit, “Gold Fever,” under acceptable American Museum Association standards.

- During the past year, founding Mission Preservation Foundation President Tony Moiso stepped aside after serving on the Board for over 12 years. While he will remain active on the Foundation Board, he handed the reins over to long time Mission supporter, George O’Connell. The Board was also expanded to include an additional highly anticipated new board member, Mr. Michael Puntoriero of San Juan Capistrano.

- The Romance of the Mission 2009 Gala Committee hosted a memorable evening featuring Benise raising over $450,000 in gross revenue. Net funds were designated to support the Mission’s museum and preservation efforts.

- In the fall of 2009 this landmark expanded its role as a living history museum and introduced its first traveling exhibit, “Gold Fever,” in cooperation with the California Exhibit Resource Alliance (CERA). Students enjoyed panning for gold, and seeing real life Gold Rush era artifacts up close. Following the Gold Fever exhibit’s closure, the Mission team curated a second traveling exhibit with an array of outstanding items provided on loan by Zorro Productions, Inc.

- In 2009-2010 record level funds were raised for the Adopt-A-Class low income student scholarship program due to the generosity of major supporters and friends who appreciate the value of learning about history in this one-of-a-kind setting. With that support, over 3,383 Adopt-A-Class students were able to visit the Mission who otherwise might not have been able to do so. The cards and letters sent by the participating “adopted” students generated great excitement and served as motivation for the staff and the Foundation to continue to raise funds for the purpose of student scholarships.
- The Landmarks Club was established as the Mission’s official planned giving program. By year end over 30 households had joined as founding members, committing estate gifts as part of their legacy. The original Landmarks Club of the early 1900’s had a historic role in raising funds for the preservation of the Great Stone Church, which still stands today as a result of their efforts.

- Membership in the Mission Preservation Society grew by 39% with funding generated directly supporting much needed preservation work throughout the grounds.

- The existing five language audio tour “Voices of the Past” program was expanded to six languages and now includes an Italian version.

- A new website was introduced and has increased website traffic by 275% with over 23 million annual visits. Social media strategies successfully raised awareness of the Mission and especially generated more support from teachers and parents taking a tour. The Mission shared its progress in marketing with the local business community in two downtown merchant outreach breakfasts. At these meetings staff reviewed attendance trends and identified partnership and marketing opportunities.

- The essential Mission San Juan Capistrano history book, written by Father William Krekelberg, was generously underwritten and made publicly available as a means of raising much needed preservation funds. To date, the Mission Book continues to be a top seller and a tool for supporting the Mission’s preservation with 1,112 books sold.

- The Mission’s Education Program was expanded to provide two new “student and parent friendly” resource books featuring information on all of the California missions. Resource books sales were unexpectedly brisk and caused the temporary shutdown of the Mission’s official website. $8,635 was generated through the sale of our resource books.

- Free Teacher Admission Day was introduced, along with weekend panning for gold, and Curiosity Cart “make and take” items free to visitors.

These are just a few of the exciting accomplishments of the 2009-2010 fiscal year. We look forward to making more history throughout this coming 2010-2011 year with the keen awareness that Mission San Juan Capistrano continues to serve as home to many, including the weary traveler, the faith-filled, the lifelong Californian, the student, the romantic, and generations of all ages.

Thank you for your support in making all of this possible.
The Mission proudly hosted a busy 2009-2010 calendar of events providing many opportunities for the public to enjoy wholesome and meaningful experiences right here in San Juan Capistrano with friends and family. From the world famous “Annual Return of the Swallows”, Mariachi Festival, summer Music Under The Stars concert series, annual Romance of the Mission benefit gala to Christmas at the Mission, there is something to do every month at Orange County’s only mission. People of all backgrounds, generations, and faith traditions enjoyed the opportunity to experience culture and celebration in an unparalleled setting.

In addition to the signature events, Mission San Juan Capistrano continued to expand its offering of unique “always at the Mission” activities such as the adult audio tour, student audio tour, Curiosity Carts, Garden Tours, Native American basket weaving demonstrations, private guided tours, Welcome Video, Plein-Air Art Reproductions Exhibition from the collection of Mrs. Joan Irvine Smith and the Irvine Museum in the Soldiers Barracks Gallery and more. In 2009-2010 the entire site was best defined in one word - “experience”.

In 2009-2010, over 330,000 experienced the Mission in one of these unique ways, and each left with a lifelong memory to cherish.
In the fall of 2009, the Mission expanded its identity from historic landmark to historic landmark and museum, marking the opportunity for visitors to enjoy traveling exhibits in addition to the historic landmark. Audiences of all ages related well to the storytelling provided by the exhibits. This new feature generated greater appreciation and attendance.

The first traveling exhibit, “Gold Fever,” was curated in cooperation with the California Exhibit Resource Alliance (CERA) and told the story of the California Gold Rush and the impact on statehood as a result. Following the “Gold Fever” exhibit’s closure, the Mission team curated a second exhibit with an array of outstanding items provided on loan by Zorro Productions, Inc. The “Zorro Unmasked” exhibit marked a new level of design combining a theatrical setting with the backdrop of a black and white old style silent film playing in the background. The Mission’s summer crowds enjoyed learning about the famed Zorro character and his origins. Over 39,000 visited the exhibit from late May to early September.

These two exhibits together paved the way for continuing the traveling exhibit program as part of the Mission’s effort to showcase many points of view on history and American culture as well as offer renewable experiences “outside” of the Mission context to generate interest, support, and curiosity as to what is being hosted next.
EDUCATION - OVER 52,000 FIELD TRIP MEMORIES!

For every student, the Mission provides an opportunity to instill respect for history, architecture, old buildings, diversity, and an appreciation of different faith traditions. This last year, our team approached its responsibilities knowing that the entire field trip experience may also provide a lesson in patriotism. Mission educators and partners worked to cultivate an appreciation of what earlier generations accomplished.

The hundreds of letters from happy students sent to Mission staff, docents, and donors were testimony that the field trip was more than a chance to get out of school. It was an opportunity to engage them.

The table to the right provides a summary of Education Program Attendance Accomplishments in 2009-2010.

The Education staff of the Mission and its partners (such as the Discovery Science Center, Ocean Institute, and Journeys to the Past) took tremendous pride in motivating and teaching over 52,000 students to care about history and the past from which they came. The Mission’s volunteer docents generously provided 26,143 fourth grade students with guided tours. The Gardening Angels also provided summer garden experiences as well as Garden Tours. Members from the Juaneño Band of Mission Indians also provided basket weaving demonstrations for students to appreciate the traditions of their people.

In all, visiting teachers and their students rated Mission San Juan Capistrano with an overall “A” with many reporting that their field trip experience was one to be remembered for a lifetime.

The careful arrival and artful teaching of so many children from October, 2009, through June, 2010, remained a top priority for everyone working at the Mission.
The Adopt-A-Class Scholarship Program
Mission San Juan Capistrano also continued to find ways to ensure that access for student field trips to low income students remained available through its Adopt-A-Class Scholarship Program. In 2009-2010 education programs were enjoyed by the under served of Southern California through the support of private donors. This donor supported field trip program received $31,976.51 to provide 3,308 students with free admissions, docent guided tours, Passport Explorers, transportation, and participation in an education program class during the 2009-2010 school year. It was a year when children especially needed this kind of support.

A Letter from William M. Habermehl, Orange County Superintendent of Schools
Every year, over 50,000 students visit Orange County’s only historic mission to learn about California history and all of California’s missions. Your support of the Mission’s education programming helps to keep the Mission around for the next generation of students, so thank you!

Mission San Juan Capistrano offers award winning audio tours in multiple languages and also provides educational “passport” booklets, engaging exhibits, and Living History Day, featuring volunteers dressing in period attire. Students and parents will also find information about all of the missions in the California Missions Resource Studio, free with admission. There are “free with admission” weekend and summer time student activities, as well as numerous free resources on the website, all designed to extend the class room learning beyond the field trip experience. All of this educational programming complies with the 4th grade California Social Science Content Standards, (4.2 #5).
In 2009-2010 over 330,000 visitors were greeted by a smiling face, assisted by a caring person, and guaranteed to have a quality visit and experience. As part of its recruitment process, the Mission leadership seeks to attract and retain caring and talented stewards who will invest generous amounts of time to ensure that Orange County’s premier landmark remains just that. From Guest Services specialists, to site work and preservation specialists, to event planners, there are many different types of Mission employees. However their differences, they all share one thing, they recognize their role as stewards.

What the team has achieved in the area of stewardship of the historic buildings, organization of the artifacts, improvements and upgrades to the museum setting, as well as restoring the religious significance of the site are impressive accomplishments for a smaller non-profit organization that must rely on donations and support to make these projects possible.

While there are more milestones along the way with the pending relocation of the Gift Shop space to the street corner and the much needed preservation on the Mission’s oldest, and most original buildings and artifacts, one thing is guaranteed, the Mission team will work together to protect and ensure that the landmark continues to shine.

People always say “it’s so peaceful, it’s so beautiful – it must be easy to work here.” The answer is that “it takes 36 special and dedicated people, many passionate volunteers, and a lot of supportive friends to keep it that way.” By the way, “It’s not easy, but it’s a privilege to do so.”
In 2009-2010, our 300 volunteers devoted 6,760 hours, averaging over 563 hours a month to keeping the Mission a vibrant place of inspiration, education and preservation.

The Mission Preservation Foundation celebrates the Mission’s incredible volunteers each January at its annual Volunteer and Staff Appreciation Luncheon held at the world famous El Adobe de Capistrano Restaurant in San Juan Capistrano.

Among the Mission’s valued volunteer groups are the following:

- Artifacts Council
- Curiosity Cart Volunteers
- Docent Society
- Events and Office Support Volunteers
- Gardening Angels
- Living History
- Native American Basket Weavers
- Women’s Guild
- Youth Leadership Special Projects Volunteers
Preservation is a top priority for Mission San Juan Capistrano. As the art and science of historic preservation has developed, efforts must more carefully reflect respect for the past and in all ways be reversible, and be based on careful thinking of the past treatments applied to buildings and artifacts. Future generations of preservationists must have access to well maintained records so that they know how to carry on the future preservation projects. Preservation is defined as the stewardship of this site and its structures. Preservation also means sharing information with the public to generate a learning opportunity on how to steward the site and prescribe treatments that allow for future generations to enjoy the Mission. Part of the preservation effort requires managing events so that they do not generate damage.

Preservation also involves sharing information about the site, or interpreting the site so that those who visit, leave with a deeper appreciation for various significant points in California history.

Preservation of the Mission is funded entirely by private donations, membership, or grants. Income from the gate admissions do not fund the preservation of the site, but rather, keep the Mission open for the public. This makes all of the accomplishments from the past year even more meaningful, when it is realized that gifts and donations directly translate into a measurable, immediate difference on the Mission grounds that will be appreciated for generations to come.
